

CHRISTIAN RESOURCES EXHIBITION

Seminar Programme

15-17 OCTOBER 2019

SEMINAR PROGRAMME TUESDAY 15 OCTOBER

PARK VIEW

12 noon
World Vision
Private reception

ROOM 1

11am
Being playfully serious
Claire Dalpra, Church Army: How Messy Churches create new space for faith. Learn about research into the deeper effects of Anglican Messy Churches, drawing on data from leaders and attendees. More

12 noon
Getting started with Messy Church
Dave Martin, BRF: How to start a Messy Church, grow Messy disciples and run a Messy Communion. More

2pm
Awkward but essential
Sarah Smith, ACET UK: How to talk effectively about relationships and sex in church. More

3pm
The greatest secret
Krish Kandiah, World Vision: Why adoption changes everything about discipleship. More

ROOM 2

11am
Metamorphosis: How to move beyond the church walls
Alison Fernandes, Mothers' Union: Introducing MU's Metamorphosis that identifies skills and gifts within any church that can be used to transform local communities. More

12 noon
How to protect your church from terrorism
Richard Fidge, Metropolitan Police: Following recent attacks, receive practical advice on security for your place of worship. More

2pm
Sharing Bible stories in primary schools
Julie Jefferies and Val Ralston, Bible Society: Find out how to be part of Open the Book, a dramatic way of presenting the Bible to schoolchildren. More

3pm
Report on Bible distribution at the London Olympics 2012
Edward Diggines, Amana Trust: Introducing compelling evidence of hunger for the Bible in the UK today. More

ROOM 3

11am
Church buildings: How to make them happen
Jim Hammett and Nigel Walter, Church Build: Considering a major church building project but not sure where to start? The answer is here. More

12 noon
From detached to disciples: The building blocks of outstanding youth ministry
Dan Lodge, YFC: How to develop an intentional journey that takes young people from being completely detached to following Jesus. More

2pm
Can you hear me at the back?
Tim Horton, B+H Sound: Practical advice on how to solve those annoying problems with your sound system. More

3pm
Free will: God's choice, our choice
Anthony Mitchell: Understanding the implications of free will, what it means to us and our choices. More

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

WORSHIP WEDNESDAY: 16 OCTOBER

WORSHIP WEDNESDAY PARK VIEW

11am

What on earth is worship?

Chris Bowater, Lou Fellingham, Carla Jane, Roger Jones, Noel Robinson and Roy Francis establish an agreed definition and understanding. Interview and presentation – Lou Fellingham.

12 noon

Who on earth is worship for?

Chris, Lou, Carla, Roger, Noel and Roy discuss our relationship with God and each other. Interview and presentation – Carla Jane.

2pm

How on earth should we worship?

Chris, Lou, Carla, Roger, Noel and Roy discuss differing styles and genres of worship. Interview and presentation – Roger Jones.

3pm

Worship? Heaven help us!

Chris, Lou, Carla, Roger, Noel and Roy discuss how worship in spirit and truth requires the leading of the Holy Spirit. Interview and worship finale – Noel Robinson (plus Worship Wednesday team).

ROOM 1

11am

How to tackle loneliness and bring the Kingdom of God into your community

Louise Morse, Pilgrimsfriend.org: Hear of an effective strategy that deals with loneliness and brings people into church. More

12 noon

Can persecution be a shot in the arm?

Dr David Dean, Barnabas Fund: How we can learn from the persecuted church and be strengthened in our faith. More

2pm

The commissions of Christ

Michael Penny, Open Bible Trust: Some claim the apostles were reluctant to follow the Great Commission, but this seminar will show that they did. More

3pm

How can I get my church talking about their faith?

Tim Moyler and Dave Pegg, Agapé UK: Discover fresh ideas on talking about faith as a way of life. More

ROOM 2

11am

How your church can protect those most at risk in society

Lyndon and Celia Bowering, CARE: Discover the part you can play in shaping our laws and protecting the vulnerable. More

12 noon

Leaving a lasting legacy

Michele Price and Katrina Jackson, PWW Charity Solicitors: All you need to know to make sure your will benefits those you care about most. More

2pm

Inspire a faith that lasts

Gareth Hillier, Care for the Family: Discover how to empower and equip parents to share their faith with their children. More

3pm

Weddings, baptisms and funerals: Grasping the opportunity

Tom Pearson, Life Events: How to build a relationship with people who come to church for life event services. More

ROOM 3

11am

Fundraising for capital projects

David Saint, Action Planning: Planning a project costing hundreds or millions of pounds? This seminar is packed with useful information and advice. More

12 noon

Chaplaincy: the new missional frontline

Rev Jonathan Woodhouse CB, Moorlands College: How chaplaincy operates on the edge of the church but at the heart of the Gospel. More

2pm

Healing for those hurting from porn and adultery

Mike Genung, Blazing Grace: What churches can do to minister to those hurting from the porn epidemic. More

3pm

Can you hear me at the back?

Tim Horton, B+H Sound: Practical advice on how to solve those annoying problems with your sound system. More

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

LADIES' DAY: THURSDAY 17 OCTOBER

LADIES' DAY PARK VIEW

11am

#metoo, #churchtoo, #ustoo?

Stories of women subjected to sexism and violence have dominated media coverage, and the church is not immune. Natalie Collins of Project 3:28 suggests ways we can create safe churches that hold abusers accountable and enable women to flourish in Christ.

12 noon

Where have all the black saints gone?

Dr Sanjee Perera, a research fellow at the University of Birmingham, explores how, historically, beauty and virtue became synonymous with whiteness, and how this is a double burden for women with black and minority ethnicities.

1.15pm

Women in leadership

The Rt Rev Dr Jo Bailey Wells, Bishop of Dorking, responds to the challenges women face in pursuing God's call to leadership, including theological objections, institutional barriers and internal obstacles.

2.30pm

Reviving biblical womanhood

What happens to women and girls who don't fit a biblical ideal? Based on her new book, The Girl Deconstruction Project, Rachel Gardner offers a new vision for women in the church.

3.15pm

Ladies' Day plenary

Hosted by Natalie Collins of Project 3:28.

ROOM 1

11am

The gift of being a grandparent or godparent

Dr Sam Richards, URC: How to nurture relationships across the generations and be enriched through them. More

12 noon

Being a mother to the motherless

Lizzy Price, EDGE: Helping the next generation become the women God has called them to be. More

2pm

Exploring wellbeing for ordained women

Rev Jackie Johnson, Women in Ministry Pastoral Care: Explore experiences and issues specific to ordained women that impact their wellbeing. More

3pm

Messy Vintage

Jill Phipps, BRF: Applying Messy Church values and good practice to an older generation. More

ROOM 2

11am

Death, dying and bereavement

Rev Canon Dr Sandra Millar, Life Events: How to best deal with the effects of bereavement and serve communities in grief. More

12 noon

The digital generation: Understanding young people and their lives online

Laura Hancock, YFC: Introducing key findings from a research project about the online lives of 1001 young people. More

2pm

Using digital technology to make women's lives better

Jo Swinney, CPO: Understanding the impact of social media on mental health of women and girls and how to use it for good. More

3pm

Where are the children?

Dr Sam Richards, URC: A clear framework and practical suggestions to help your church increase engagement with children. More

ROOM 3

11am

Can you hear me at the back?

Tim Horton, B+H Sound: Practical advice on how to solve those annoying problems with your sound system. More

12 noon

Social action and church growth

Matt Adcock, Church Urban Fund: Exploring new research on the relationship between social action, discipleship and church growth. More

2pm

Starting a community project in your church

John Marsh, Mark Eddison, Justyn Larcombe of MEB Design: A practical guide to beginning projects that serve the community in a variety of ways. More

3pm

Metamorphosis: How to move beyond the church walls

Alison Fernandes, Mothers' Union: Introducing MU's Metamorphosis that identifies skills and gifts within any church that can be used to transform local communities. More